A GREAT DAY

Yeaell's Appeal.

In the Bible School, a very interesting Illustrated talk on turning water into wine was given by Evangelist Herbert Yeuell. He used six glasses, the water in each of which he changed by chemical action into a wine color. The first letters of the various things for which these glasses stood spelled thanks. In this impressive way he made his application that the Gospel changed our characters and our somes, and that this change was made by the spirit of God. An urgent invitation was then given for all those in the Bible School who had not done so to make a profession of their faith in Christ at that time. There were nine-teen persons who went to the front of the church where they made a public

In the service at night, the manner in which all sang showed the interest they were taking in these services. The sermon was one of Dr. Yeuell's best. It was a forceful effort and left many under conviction. In all there were twenty-two responses to the invitation making over sixty since these meetings began. The sermon tonight at the Growers is on "Neutrality."
